Friday 11 August – Program

8.30 am Registration – coffee and tea

9 am Welcome and housekeeping

Margrete Lamond, author and publisher:

9.10 am Visual Literacy: Visual Literacy: visual literacy is not just about conscious reading of visual cues, it is also about the way our brains unconsciously register the less obvious elements of an image. In this session, Margrete Lamond takes a look at some of the elements of illustration that lie hidden in plain view, and suggests their importance to emotional and social literacy.

10.10 am Jenny Kemp and Tara Ball, St Andrew's Cathedral School
Genre based promotions: including 'Murder of the author'

10.50 am Morning Tea

Inspiring, igniting and innovating in Senior School libraries

11.20 am Cathy Oxley, Brisbane Grammar School
Metamorphosis of a Library Team: In 2015, Brisbane Grammar School appointed a professional coach to assist Cathy as she re-focused her staff and re-wrote her Library Strategic Plan. One result was the re-energising of the library staff. Cathy will discuss the process and some of the exciting results.

Inspiring, igniting and innovating in Junior School libraries

Lizzy Martin, St Catherine's School
Ditching Dewey: How to re-imagine your school library collection.

11.20 pm Katherine Wiebe, Redlands
Visible Thinking with the State's online treasures: Primary sources are at the forefront of our new curriculum. This presentation will highlight examples from the State Library and apply 'Making Thinking Visible' techniques to deepen understanding.

Sue Krust and Tania Moriarty, Abbotsleigh
Welcome to Café Palmer – book tasting in style: Transforming the library into a 'café' adds an element of fun as students sample, or 'taste', a selection of books from a range of genres. This is an enjoyable and easy way to increase reading across grades 4-6 by guiding reluctant readers and motivating advanced readers.

12.20 pm	Brendon Mitchell, ClickView Flipped Learning: The latest trends and future directions: Emerging research into flipped learning has effected changes in its conceptualisation. Hear about what the research says on this as well as where flipped learning is heading. Practical examples about uses of flipped learning across different stages of schooling and in subject areas will also be shared along with resources to help you start or strengthen your flipped journey.
12.50 pm	Lunch
1.30 pm	Dr Margaret Merga, Lecturer and Researcher in Adolescent Literacy, Health Promotion and Education, Murdoch University Discussion of her research into children's reading and encouraging children to read more. Margaret will address popular myths about young people's reading, including the contention that young people prefer to read on screens, and that boys prefer non-fiction.
2.30 pm	Innovative libraries 2.30 pm Judy Hurst, Loreto Kirribilli: Integrating VR with Guided Inquiry 2.40 pm Sue Gough, Newington: Design thinking cycle 2.50 pm Alma Loreaux & Katherine Hicks, St Luke's Grammar School: Open source library management system
