Scholarships

In 2023 our generous donors supported 36 means-tested scholarships for students, who without this opportunity, would not be able to attend Abbotsleigh.

Indigenous Scholarships

"From the beginning of Year 7, I felt nothing short of blessed to be able to receive an education as phenomenal as the one I received from Abbotsleigh. It is not every girl who gets an opportunity like the one I received, and my experience was nothing short of exceptional. Abbotsleigh allowed me to develop my passions and explore my love for community and helping those around me. This has fostered my tertiary studies of Medicine at the University of New South Wales, which I attribute to the scholarship pathway and the opportunity that I was given."

Olivia is currently studying Medicine at the University of New South Wales.

Kathleen McCredie Scholarship

"Abbotsleigh has provided me with an outstanding education and I feel incredibly grateful to have received the Kathleen McCredie Scholarship. The opportunities that this scholarship gave me were fantastic. I especially enjoyed discovering my passion for music through choir, vocal and piano lessons, as well as participating in a number of sports such as netball, soccer and AFL. This experience of a rich and well rounded education, I know, will put me in great stead for my future beyond school. For this I would like to thank the donors, as well as my wonderful teachers and the Abbotsleigh boarding community for their endless support."

Ava is currently studying a Bachelor of Arts (Music) and a Bachelor of Advanced Studies (Media and Communications) at the University of Sydney, where she is a resident at The Women's College.

Betty Archdale Scholarship

"I am very honoured to have received the Betty Archdale Scholarship which enabled me to attend Abbotsleigh as a boarder throughout my high school years. My time at Abbotsleigh holds some of my fondest memories and helped me to develop a positive attitude and strong work ethic which have been crucial in my first few months out of school. Through receiving my scholarship, I was able to push myself academically in pursuit of my interests in business and economics, in addition to participating in a variety of different sports that were not accessible in my home town. I am very grateful to have received this scholarship and hope that future girls receive the same benefit and opportunities that I received."

Hollie is on a gap year, working on an agricultural property in central Queensland and plans to study a Bachelor of Business and Commerce.

BETTY ARCHDALE
SCHOLARSHIP

Your daughter has benefited from the generosity of Abbotsleigh parents, Old Girls and staff.

Without the generous donations from our Abbotsleigh community, we would not be able to fund our important Indigenous Scholarships, Foundation Scholarships and prizes, or improve our facilities.

In 2023, our generous community supported Abbotsleigh Foundation, which provided 36 scholarships and new learning environments. With your help, this year we aim to raise $1,000,000.
