

ABBOTSLEIGH
FOUNDATION

Bequests to Abbotsleigh

A woman's will is a powerful thing

An Abbotsleigh girl knows she can do and be anything.

When you are writing your will you should think about the things that matter to you in life and, to my mind, nothing matters more than the education of young women. At Abbotsleigh we have the benefit of the wisdom and guidance of superb teachers in exceptional learning environments. To be able to pass that on is surely one of the best things of life - and you know you are doing exactly that in the form of a bequest.'

Elizabeth Tomlinson (Mills, 1960)

It's an empowering message that lasts a lifetime.

It's why she chooses how she leaves her money; who it goes to and how it's best used. A bequest to Abbotsleigh is an investment in independent young women.

Your will, your way

You can speak confidentially to us about how you create a will, what kinds of gifts you can leave, and if you would like them to go towards a specific cause, such as Indigenous or needs-based scholarships, a prize, or school improvements. No matter the size of your gift, Abbotsleigh is deeply appreciative of bequests from members of our school community.

A bequest to Abbotsleigh is an investment in independent young women

Further information about gifts in wills can be found at abbotsleigh.nsw.edu.au/giving/gifts-in-wills

Alternatively, you may contact the Fundraising Manager, Ella Toll, for a confidential chat by phone on 02 9473 7774
or by email at foundation@abbotsleigh.nsw.edu.au